

By and between the City of Parsons, Tennessee, hereinafter called "City and _____, hereinafter called "Customer".

WHEREAS, the City and the Customer anticipate entering into an agreement whereby the city will provide services to install gas lines on the customer's property; and

WHEREAS, the City desires the customer to release them from any and all causes of action and liability for installing said line; and

WHEREAS, both the City and Customer enter into this Agreement for the purposes herein contained:

1. The City agrees to install gas lines on the property of the customer and the customer does hereby grant to the City the right to enter upon the property for the purpose of installing said lines.
2. The gas lines shall be installed and located pursuant to the direction and request of the Customer and the Customer agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the City for any and all damages that may result from the installation of said lines.
3. City shall not be responsible for any damages caused by installation unless installation is improperly performed, and the City shall not be responsible for replacement of said lines or removal of said lines after the installation thereof and the Customer shall be responsible for the cost of relocating or the removal of lines.
4. The Customer waives any right to hold the City responsible after installation of said lines unless the Customer has notified the City in writing of the problem within five (5) days of completion of work.
5. Parsons Gas department does not maintain any piping on the customer side of the meter. It is the customers responsibility to maintain any exposed or buried piping that is owned by the customer. The customer should periodically inspect for leaks and corrosion. You, the customer, should repair any unsafe condition that may exist.
