Community Forum:

Mayor stated we have just received a draft of the audit which will be sent to each council member. The auditor will be here for the December meeting.

Reports from committees, councilmen, and other officers

Dale King, Parson Police Chief, stated that Army Surplus has an equipment replacement procedure published on their web site that makes equipment available to Law Enforcement Agencies only. There is everything on it, Chief King stated. We only have to put in for it, and go get it. Chief King handed out a list which contains the following items that he has gotten: 1-Hum V Vehicle, 20 M-16A1-Rifles, another Hum V Vehicle, assorted tools, exercise unit, 40 ft Connex, 250 Chairs, 1- 20 Ft Ref Connex, 1- Hum v Vehicle, 1- Generator, 2-Hem V Trailers, 2- ATV's, 46 Metal Storage Cases, 2-Air Compressors, and 4- Water Canisters. All of the merchandise is in great working condition. (List is attached to minutes) City of Parsons keeps for a year, and if they want to sell the item(s) or assign to another department they can.

Branson Townsend, Special Projects Planner, told council members to mark their calendar for the Centennial Tour which will be held on Saturday, November 16 from 10:00 a .m. to noon. The tour will cover the early days of Parsons. A booklet is available for purchase from city hall for $5.00 which contains the early facts and stories about early Parsons compiled by Branson and county historian Dick Butler.

Regular Monthly Meeting November 4, 2013

The book can be used along with the guided tour. UT Martin and Riverside students will be the tour guides for the day.

That same afternoon, a cemetery tour will be available at the Parsons Cemetery where the Rivertime Players will bring to life six founding forefathers of Parsons. This activity will take place at 2:00 p. m. Council members were ask to be a part of the special Christmas Parade on Saturday December 7 to celebrate “100 Years of Christmas in Parsons.”
