Reports from committees, councilmen, and other officers

Mayor Boaz stated that we would be having a pre-construction meeting Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. on the Downtown Phase IV. On Thursday at 10:00 a.m. the Development District has a program on Assets Base Planning. On Twenty-second at 10:00 a.m., we will have the first process meeting on the Water plant upgrade. Everything is going fine on it, they have the footing all dug.

The Parsons Christmas parade was held Saturday, afternoon, December 2nd at 5:00 p.m. with approximately twenty-three floats. This included floats advertising the local businesses.

The Decatur County Manor, Westwood Nursing Home, and Kolpak entered floats this year. Little David Wilkins was the Grand Marshall this year. We had four bands. Several people came to see him. Weather was nice. Several cars, trucks, and wagons and horses came down the parade route. with all the entries, and with everyone's help the parade was a success.

Mr. Charles Taylor, Chamber Director, gave an update on the Annual Chamber Membership Dinner approximately 38 Tables with around 230 people attending. Night Owl Sale for the business will be on December 14th.

Dale King will be teaching an Active Shooter preparedness class. This class will start at 6:00 p.m. on December 11, 2017. This class is for churches, business, or anyone who wants to attend.

First draft on the audit for 2016-2017 was handed out to the councilmen.

Motion to adjourn by Dale Reynolds. Second by Marty Carrington. Vote: Ayes.
